9th Circuit Case Number(s):	16-55286
District Court/Agency Case Number(s):	14-cv-1749-GPC-DHB
District Court/Agency Location:	SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
Case Name:	JACOB GREGOIRE v. CALIFORNIA HIGHWAY PATROL, et al.
If District Court, docket entry number(s) of order(s) appealed from:	Doc. 46
Name of party/parties submitting this form:	California Highway Patrol and Sergio Flores
Please briefly describe the dispute that gave rise to this lawsuit. On February 4, 2014, California Highway Patrol Officer Sergio Flores arrested Chula Vista Fire Department Engineer Jacob Gregoire on the grounds that Engineer Gregoire refused to follow CHP Officers' orders to move a fire truck that was blocking lanes at an accident scene. Officer Flores contends the orders were lawful and necessary to protect public safety. Engineer Gregoire contends the orders were unlawful and that his ensuing arrest was without probable cause. Engineer Gregoire also claims that the handcuffs were placed too tightly on his wrists.
Briefly describe the result below and the main issues on appeal. The California Highway Patrol and Officer Sergio Flores brought a motion for summary judgment. These Defendants/Appellants argued that the arrest was supported by probable cause and that Officer Flores was entitled to qualified immunity. The District Court denied the motion. The main issue on appeal will be Plaintiff/Appellee's failure to show a violation of clearly established law. Plaintiff/Appellee also failed to raise genuine disputed issues of material fact to demonstrate a lack of probable cause for the arrest or the existence of excessive force.
Describe any proceedings remaining below or any related proceedings in other tribunals. Prior to the Notice of Appeal, the matter was set for a final pretrial conference, during which the trial court would have set a trial date. There are no related proceedings.

Provide any other thoughts you would like to bring to the attention of the mediator.
